

GENEROCITY'15 - PRE-PRIMARY KIDS REVIVE THE TALES OF MADRAS

A noteworthy event that brought out the communication and organization skills of Pre-primary students was GeneroCity'15. Students commemorated the city of Chennai that deserves to celebrate its birthday. They proved that Chennai is not just about traffic and hot weather but also a unique blend of culture, art, music and diverse population.

Important traits of Chennai such as the 100-year-old Adyar Banyan Tree, Mamallapuram, delicious cuisines that had their origin here, before and after photos of important structures and streets of Chennai were also highlighted in the programme.

Chennai-born legends, who went global, were also honoured by the students. Girls, dressed in yellow tshirt, danced to the tunes of Chennai song to celebrate its 376th birthday.
