

A RARE COMBINATION OF SKILLS AND TALENTS !

Everwin Vidhyashram students from class VII to X organized ‘Young ‘LITERATI’’ a show on English grammar and literature today (21.12.2015) and proved once again that Everwin is synonymous with the universal language. They were so much inspired by English literature and poetry that some students were dressed up as famous poets and explained their contribution to the language. English proverbs were beautifully illustrated through posters and live models for the audience to understand the meanings easily. Some of the highlights of the show are Riddle ‘o’ Mania, Watchword caricatures, Funnglish, Collywobbles games, Soft skill development and more.
